

Calm Your Mind 🎵 (Kjell Sønksen)

hello Blandine,

this was a wonderful rendition. So beautifully played with a lot of delicateness in the performance. Like the chord colours and your finesse articulation and differentiation between the left and right hand. Although my playlist isn't built for that traditional classical style I just need to add this. Wonderful performance that I need to support.

Any listening to the playlist would mean a lot for all artists. Most of it is felt piano.

warm regards, kjell
