Rádio Armazém

I've chosen to promote Blandine Waldmann's "LISZT Consolation S.172 Nr.5" because this recording perfectly captures the piece's strengths: the purity of the melody and the dynamic control that lets every note breathe. I particularly like the simplicity with which she handles the most nostalgic passages, without overstatement, maintaining an intimate and reflective mood that feels very genuine. It's an ideal pick for those who appreciate classical piano with direct emotional delivery and no pretension. Stay in the flow! After its release, we will add your track to our radio show "Noitinha Cool" here at Rádio Armazém (listen at radioarmazem.net). The show airs every Sunday at 10:00 PM (Brazil time). Afterwards, the show goes to our playlist on our Spotify profile.
